Hurricane "Delta"

Location: Gulf of Mexico

Impact: marine exposure; offshore and energy exposure

Issued by Skytek: at 12:00 GMT on 06/10/2020

Summary: This year's hurricane season is still active and above average. The 26th storm of the year has rapidly grown from a tropical depression into Hurricane "Delta" in less than 24 hrs, as it moves through the Caribbean with now 85 knots winds.

"Delta" is the 9th and the fastest forming hurricane of the year, reaching Category 2, possibly 3 Hurricane tomorrow when passing over Cancun, Mexico and expected to reach Category 3 or 4 before landfall on the coasts of Louisiana on the AM hours of the 10th Oct.

Skytek React tracks 2700 ships currently in the cone of the Hurricane “Delta”, of which 20% are ocean cargo carriers, tugs and inland carriers being the majority of the remainder.

In addition to the ocean-going carriers, Skytek React system captures currently more than 4000 offshore energy assets (Fixed Platforms, Drilling Ships, TLP, Semi-Submersible Production facilities etc) found in the cone of Hurricane “Delta”, whose aggregate valuation is captured in excess of three hundred billion USD.

Skytek React is tracking in near real-time the assets in the 34 knots and 50 knots winds radius of the Hurricane “Delta”, mapping the aggregate exposure dynamically as the storm develops.
